

For Immediate Release:

5th Annual Resident Camp Hosted at Camp Archbald

Friends group runs all volunteer overnight camp for girls

Kingsley, PA- Supporters of Camp Archbald (SoCA) will be hosting the fifth annual all-volunteer-run resident camp for girls at Camp Archbald, the second-oldest Girl Scout camp in the United States. This year, Camp Archbald will celebrate 102 years of continuous operation in Northeast Pennsylvania.

Open to all girls going into grades 1-12, resident camp offers a variety of outdoor activities for girls to participate in such as horseback riding, ropes course, swimming, boating and hiking. This summer, girls will have classic activity offerings like arts and crafts, campfires and singing. New for this summer will be programs such as Silly Science, Disney Magic, Water World and many more. Girls participating in the Water World program, will spend one week exploring Ely Lake and the next week traveling to a world-class aquarium in Connecticut. Additionally, for first-time campers, SoCA is offering Taste of Camp and S'more and More, a three-day, two-night experience where girls will be introduced to the many opportunities and activities that Camp Archbald has to offer.

Camp runs July 10-15 and July 17-22. Girls can attend one or both weeks of camp. Registration is open from now until June 1st at bit.ly/2022socacamp. After submitting the registration form, payments can be made online and through Venmo or Paypal. Financial aid is also available. A deposit of $25 can secure a spot. More information about camp can be found at supportersofcamparchbald.org/resident-camp/ or emailing us directly at residentcampforsoca@gmail.com.
